- Regulation (EC) No. 1223/2009
- Regulation (EU) 2023/1545 on fragrance allergen labelling

EU FRAGRANCE ALLERGEN STATUS

Leather Oud 947325 is a proprietary fragrance composition.

The publicly available Safety Data Sheet identifies hazardous properties but does not disclose a complete quantitative fragrance allergen composition. Accordingly, the exact EU fragrance allergen profile cannot be established from public documentation alone.

Parameter	Declaration
Complete quantitative allergen declaration	Not publicly available
Exact allergen concentrations	Confidential
Batch-to-batch variation	Possible
Official Firmenich allergen declaration	Shall take precedence

COSMETIC LABELLING

For cosmetic products marketed in the European Union, allergen labelling shall be based upon the official quantitative allergen declaration supplied by Firmenich for the specific production batch.

Labelling thresholds remain:

Finished Cosmetic Product	Threshold
Leave-on products	0.001%
Rinse-off products	0.01%

CONCLUSION

The complete EU fragrance allergen composition of Leather Oud 947325 is proprietary. Final cosmetic allergen labelling must be based on the official manufacturer-issued allergen declaration for the supplied batch. This declaration shall always take precedence over this representative document.
