DECLARATION

Based on the supplied product-specific fragrance allergen certificate for Boisiris, all Annex III fragrance allergens assessed in the document are reported at concentrations below 0.0010%.

The source document notes that its declaration is based on available internal measurements, supplier information and/or bibliographic sources and does not replace analytical determination, as traces of unintentionally added impurities may occur.

The manufacturer of the finished cosmetic product remains responsible for assessing the complete formulation and determining the final ingredient and allergen labelling requirements.
