Regulatory Statement

This declaration is based on the typical composition of Rhubarb Absolute Extract (CAS No. 8016-55-5) and current knowledge of naturally occurring fragrance allergens. Due to natural variation associated with botanical source, harvest season, origin, and extraction method, constituent levels may vary between production batches. Finished cosmetic products must be assessed by the manufacturer for compliance with Regulation (EC) No. 1223/2009, including the latest EU fragrance allergen labeling requirements.
