Declaration

We hereby certify that Fennel Essential Oil (India) has been evaluated with reference to the International Fragrance Association (IFRA) Code of Practice and IFRA Standards (51st Amendment).

Fennel Essential Oil is a natural complex substance whose composition varies naturally between batches. It contains naturally occurring constituents including trans-anethole, estragole, limonene, fenchone and α -pinene. Compliance with IFRA requirements depends on the concentration of these constituents in the specific batch and their combined contribution in the finished fragrance formulation.

IFRA Recommendation

IFRA Categories	Recommendation
Categories 1–12	Use subject to the IFRA Standards applicable to naturally occurring restricted constituents. Batch-specific GC composition should be used when determining compliance.
