IMPORTANT INTERPRETATION

“Not Restricted” means that no maximum concentration has been assigned under a product-specific IFRA Standard based on the information available. It does not mean that unrestricted use is automatically safe or appropriate in every finished product.

The appropriate concentration must be determined according to:

- The intended finished-product application
- The complete composition of the fragrance
- Contributions from other ingredients
- The finished product's safety assessment
- Applicable national and regional legislation
- Good manufacturing practice

DECLARATION

Green Patchouli Absolute – Indonesia conforms to the IFRA Standards up to and including the 51st Amendment when used in accordance with the category status stated above.

This statement applies only to the raw material supplied by Aromology. It does not constitute an IFRA Certificate of Conformity for a finished fragrance mixture or consumer product.
