Declaration

This certificate confirms that Seaweed Absolute is supplied as a natural perfumery raw material intended for use in fragrance compounds.

Seaweed Absolute is a solvent-extracted aromatic material obtained from marine algae (Fucus spp.) and is valued in fine perfumery for its distinctive marine, iodine-like, salty, green, and earthy olfactory profile.

Based on the IFRA Standards (51st Amendment) and the currently available toxicological and regulatory information, Seaweed Absolute (CAS No. 68917-51-1) is not specifically prohibited or restricted as an individual raw material under the IFRA Standards.

Its use is therefore permitted provided that the finished fragrance complies with the applicable IFRA Standards for the intended product category, including any restrictions relating to naturally occurring constituents or other ingredients present in the complete fragrance formulation.
